OVERVIEW

Having spent nearly her entire legal career serving as a trusted advisor to closely held businesses, Terri has helped business executives and owners successfully negotiate differences through countless deals. She has developed sophisticated skill for mediating and resolving business disputes through her experience with shareholder conflicts, mergers and acquisitions, complex contract negotiations, company exits, joint ventures, recapitalizations, and governance matters. Clients say, "Her intuitive business sense together with her passion for helping clients achieve success permeates everything she does. She listens, sees the big picture and relies on her years of experience to provide practical and creative advice efficiently."

Terri has expanded the services she provides to answer a clear need in the marketplace for creative evaluative mediators who can assist counsel with dispute resolution. As a qualified Rule 114 mediator, she brings her high energy, active listening skills, broad experience, creativity, and pragmatic approach to her mediation practice. Terri is available to conduct remote mediations.
